Perfectly located in the Eastern suburbs, less than 5 kms from the Adelaide CBD, one block from Norwood Parade and set amongst other character homes, this charming cottage has a multitude of extras.

Enter through the proverbial white picket gate and mosaic-tiled porch into a whitewashed entry passage which leads through the large living room with original fireplace and timber mantlepiece.

There is a generous main bedroom with built-in wardrobes and a possible second bedroom, or study with leadlight windows and white shutters.

A spacious dining area opens into a light-filled, internal courtyard.

The bathroom is modern and chic, with an original leadlight door.

Compact and updated, the all-white kitchen has a whitewashed, basket-weave brick-tiled floor which adds a
