4 2 2

Situated in a pleasant street, with native trees, this contemporary home offers generous living space with four bedrooms, plus a study, or potential fifth bedroom. The master bedroom has a walk-in dressing room, and ensuite, plus a charming bay window.

There is a separate laundry with access outside; and a spacious garage with a private entry directly into the passage. The paved area in front of the garage offers room for another off-street car space.

The kitchen provides plenty of storage and bench space for food preparation, and flows into an open living and dining area. As well, there is a further living room for a parents'
